

Essex County Juvenile Firesetter Intervention Program

Mission Statement

To bring together community resources in the common goal of addressing the issue of juvenile firesetting and to provide prevention and intervention services, through a multidisciplinary approach, that will be concerned with the needs of children and their families as individuals and treat accordingly.